Dear Dr. Koser:

I would be very pleased to send you a reprint of my review article which appeared in Heredity except for the fact that my small supply has long since been exhausted. If you need this article urgently you may be able to obtain a copy of the issue of the journal in which the review appeared by applying to the publishers. This expedient, however, would probably be unduly expensive.

Regretfully yours,

J. Lederberg
Ass't. Prof. of Genetics
